Note: Experience must be obtained within the 5 year period prior to submission of your application. Experience hours must be satisfied by time spent on the appraisal process. The appraisal process consists of: analyzing factors that affect value; defining the problem; gathering and analyzing data; applying the appropriate analysis and methodology; and arriving at an opinion and correctly reporting the opinion in compliance with USPAP. An hour of experience is defined as verifiable time spent in performing tasks in accordance with acceptable appraisal practice. Acceptable real property appraisal practice for experience credit includes appraisal, appraisal review, appraisal consulting, and mass appraisal. All experience must be obtained after January 30, 1989, and must be USPAP compliant. An applicant's experience must be in appraisal work conforming to Standards 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and/or 6, where the appraiser demonstrates proficiency in appraisal principles, methodology, procedures (development), and reporting conclusions.

Do I have to provide experience documentation such as copies of actual appraisal reports, supporting documentation or other data used to develop the appraisals (i.e., notes, MLS reports, etc.) at the time of application?

No. You will only need to complete the "appraisal experience report" and the "appraiser experience log" at the time of application.

However, you should have all of this type of documentation in your possession. You may be asked, following initial licensure/certification, to verify any or all of the experience you have claimed.

What is considered acceptable experience?

4. Feasibility or market analysis, except to the extent that the “market value” of a proposed real estate project is being estimated.

What if I don't meet the necessary experience qualifications?

If you do not meet the experience qualifications, you may apply for an Appraiser Assistant license.

How do I qualify as a State Licensed Real Estate Appraiser Assistant?

State Licensed Real Estate Appraiser Assistant applicants must:

- file an appraiser application with the $250 fee;
- meet the minimum education requirements;
- be supervised in the conduct of their services by a New York State certified appraiser registered with the Department of State as a supervisory appraiser who must co-sign the appraisal reports;
- utilize the same Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice as a state licensed or certified appraiser.

Upon satisfaction of the application requirements of the Department of State, the Department will issue a renewable 2 year State Licensed Real Estate Appraiser Assistant license.

Should an Appraiser Assistant acquire experience for licensed or certified appraiser, his or her application must comply with whatever examination and education requirements exist for that category at that time.

Can an Appraiser Assistant qualify to take the appraiser examination?

No. Appraiser Assistants who have met the experience requirements for the appraiser classification they wish to upgrade to must submit a “new” appraiser application for this appraiser classification. Upon review and acceptance of this application, the applicant will receive an exam admission notice for this exam.

Education and experience must be completed prior to taking the AQB-approved National Uniform Licensing and Certification Examination.

Once I have completed the experience requirements, how do I upgrade from an appraiser assistant to the licensed or certified classification?

If you are upgrading to the licensed or certified classifications, you must submit a “new” completed appraiser application meeting the upgrade education and experience requirements and a $355 application fee. Upon review and acceptance of the upgrade application, you will receive an admission notice to the appraiser exam.

Is there reciprocity with other states?

Yes, with the exception of Appraiser Assistants. An applicant may be certified/licensed in New York State without examination and further qualification if the applicant provides proof and is certified/licensed in another state or territory:

- Whose licensing program is in compliance with the provisions of Title XI of The Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989.
- Whose examination has been approved by the Appraiser Qualification Board of the Appraisal Foundation.
- Who has licensing and certification qualification requirements that meet or exceed those of New York State.

Reciprocity applicants must submit the following:

- A completed appraiser application (p.5 and 6) with $330 (application and federal registration fee)

The term for a reciprocal license/certification is 2 years.

How do I apply for a temporary license/certification?

On occasion, a nonresident appraiser may wish to conduct business of a temporary nature in New York State. The applicant may be issued a temporary license/certificate to perform appraisals in New York State if the applicant is certified/licensed in another state or territory:

- whose program has been officially endorsed by the Federal Appraisal Subcommittee.
- whose examination has been approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board of the Appraisal Foundation.

Nonresident temporary applicants must submit:

- a completed appraiser application (p.5 and 6) with $125 application fee.

NOTE: TEMPORARY APPLICANTS MAY NOT MAINTAIN AN OFFICE WHICH PROVIDES APPRAISAL SERVICES TO CLIENTS IN NEW YORK STATE.

The term of a temporary license/certification is one year and cannot be renewed. A second application for an additional temporary license/certification can be submitted for approval. However, once the second temporary license/certification expires, no additional approvals will be granted. If an additional license/certification is needed, an appraiser will be required to submit an application for a full reciprocal license/certification.

It is the responsibility of the licensee to maintain records of course completion to be submitted as proof when requested by the Department of State.
